6. (1) The stadium media center may be issued with a special liquor licence in terms of these regulations.
- (2) The stadium media centre may be licensed to operate from 1 June 2010 and to a date no later than 16 July 2010.
- (3) The stadium media center will be a controlled access area, only accessible to stadium media center accredited persons.
- (4) Trading time within the stadium media center will be according to the match days as indicated in Table B.

Commercial display area within and outside the stadium perimeters

7. (1) The commercial display area may be issued with a special liquor licence in terms of these regulations.
- (2) Commercial display areas include all liquor premises and kiosks situated within and outside the commercial display area in the stadium perimeters.
- (3) Trading time for a commercial display area situated within the stadium perimeters will be according to the match days as indicated in Table C.
- (4) Trading time for commercial display areas outside the stadium perimeter will be according to the match days as indicated in Table D.
- (5) The selling and consumption of liquor within the commercial display area must only take place in designated sales areas.

Public viewing Areas

8. (1) The public viewing area shall be issued with a special liquor licence in terms of these regulations.
- (2) Liquor may only be sold at the designated sales areas within the public viewing area.
- (3) Trading time for public viewing areas will be according to the match days as indicated in Table F.
- (4) Liquor may only be consumed within the parameters of the public viewing area.

Application process for a special liquor licence or special distribution certificate

9. (1) An application for a special liquor licence must be lodged with the Provincial Liquor Board on application Form 2010/1 of these regulations.
- (2) An application for a special distribution certificate must be lodged with the Minister, by completing Form 2010/2 of these regulations.
- (3)(a) An application for a special liquor licence must be in the prescribed form and include:
- (i) in case of a stadium or fan park, proof of appointment from FIFA, or the Local Organizing Committee or Host City, as the case may be;
 - (ii) in case of a public viewing area, proof of approval or right of occupation of a designated sales area by the relevant municipality;
 - (iii) a plan or map or a sketch where liquor will be sold or supplied;

- (iv) a number of kiosks or suites or villages where liquor will be sold or supplied;
 - (v) a completed Form 2010/3 for the appointment of a manager of the licensed premises;
 - (vi) recognizable benefit for the local community or the number of historically disadvantaged individuals in the employ of the applicant; and
 - (vii) proof of payment of the application fee depending on the premises the person intends trading in.
- (b) An application for a special distribution certificate must be in the prescribed form and include the requirements set out in (3) (a) (vi) and (vii) above.
- (4) The applications in terms of these regulations are exempt from publication for public comments and objections.
- (5) On receipt of the duly completed form the Minister or Provincial Liquor Board, as the case may be, must assess and finalize the application within seven (7) working days.
- (6) Where the applicant meets the requirements to qualify for the granting of a special liquor licence or special distribution certificate, the Minister or Provincial Liquor Board, as the case may be, will issue the special liquor licence or the special distribution certificate.
- (7) When issuing the special liquor licence or special distribution certificate the Minister or Provincial Liquor Board may impose any conditions.
- (8) The Minister or Provincial Liquor Board has the right to refuse or reject an application, and such refusal or rejection must be communicated in writing to the applicant with reasons for such refusal or rejection.

Filing of applications for special liquor licence or special distribution certificate and fees

10. (1) Special liquor licence or special distribution certificate fees are prescribed by these regulations and are set out in Table G.
- (2) The prescribed fees are not refundable.
- (3) Applications may be filed with the relevant Provincial Liquor Board or the National Liquor Authority the details of which are outlined in Table H.

General conditions for a special liquor licence or a special distribution certificate

11. (1) A special liquor licence or special distribution certificate issued in terms of these regulations is only valid for the duration of issue.
- (2) The special liquor licence or special distribution certificate issuing authority may extend the validity of such licence or certificate in accordance with the extension period for the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa.
- (3) A special distribution certificate may be issued with a validity date of not more than five (5) days prior to the commencement of the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa and lapsing not more than five (5) days after the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa to allow for delivery and collection of liquor from the licensed premises.
- (4) The special liquor licence or special distribution certificate, subject to proof of appointment required in terms of 9(3)(a), is neither renewable nor transferable to another person without the consent of the relevant Provincial Liquor Board or the Minister, as the case may be.

- (5) It shall not be made a requirement of licensing under these regulations that a licensee be a member of an industry association responsible for programs intended to combat alcohol abuse.
- (6) The special liquor licence or special distribution certificate shall be subject to all the conditions applicable in terms of these regulations.
- (7) Only 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa approved products may be sold or supplied in FIFA controlled premises.
- (8) Except in the corporate or hospitality suite, hospitality village and stadium media centre, liquor must not be sold or supplied in glass containers but must only be sold and served in approved plastic, styrophome or paper containers not exceeding a volume of 500 ml each.
- (9) A person issued with a special liquor licence shall appoint a manager for purposes of managing the licensed premises.
- (10) A copy of the special liquor licence together with any imposed conditions, and the details of the appointed manager for the licensed premises, must be prominently displayed at the licensed premises.

Advertising

- 12. (1) Any advertising of liquor by a licensee or registrant must contain warning messages regarding the age restriction for sale and consumption of liquor and the dangers associated with liquor consumption.

- (2) The warning messages must be clearly visible on the advertisement so as not to likely be missed by any person reading the advertisement.
- (3) Advertisements must clearly indicate that visibly pregnant women and visibly intoxicated persons will not be supplied with liquor.

Safety regulations

- 13 (1) The sale, consumption and distribution of liquor in terms of these regulations will be monitored by inspectors appointed by the Provincial Liquor Board and the Minister.
- (2) In enforcing compliance with these regulations inspectors may be assisted by other government law enforcement and security agencies.
 - (3) In addition to these regulations the FIFA Safety Regulations apply to all the holders of special liquor licences and special distribution certificates issued in terms of these regulations for the duration of the 2010 FIFA World Cup South Africa.
 - (4) No person other than the holder of a special liquor licence, special distribution certificate or an existing distribution certificate may bring in or remove liquor from the licensed premises.
