REGULATIONS GOVERNING "THE ORDER OF IKHAMANGA"

1. The President has, in terms of rule 13 of his Warrant, dated the 30th of November 2003, by which "the Order of Ikhamanga" (hereinafter referred to as 'the Order') was instituted, approved that the following regulations governing the Order be promulgated:
2. Upon award, the Order shall be presented by the President or by such other person designated by him to the person to whom the Order has been awarded. If at all possible in the case of a posthumous award, to the next of kin, a blood relation or legal heir of the deceased, as the President may determine.
3. A Scroll of Award bearing the Seal of the President and signed by the President and the Chancellor of Orders shall be issued in respect of each award.
4. The insignia shall be worn only by the person to whom they have been awarded.
 - (i) If the insignia or Scroll of Award is stolen, lost, destroyed or damaged, the circumstances must be reported to the Chancellor of Orders.
 - (ii) If the Chancellor, after due investigation and upon sworn information is of the opinion that the theft, loss destruction or damage to the insignia or Scroll of award was not due to negligence or carelessness of the recipient, he may authorize the replacement thereof at state expense, otherwise the recipient shall bear the cost of replacements.
6. The holder shall not pledge, barter, sell or in any way alienate the insignia except by testamentary bequest. In case of any doubt, the Chancellor of Orders must be consulted.
7. Upon award of the Order in a higher category the insignia of the Category previously held by a recipient shall be returned to the Chancery and only the Insignia of the higher category may be worn.

 - (i) The President may in terms of rule 4(ii) of the Warrant annul an award if the holder, in the opinion of the President, has performed any action or behaved in a manner which harmed the interest of the Republic of South Africa or otherwise in such a manner that he/she has become unworthy of the Order;
 - (ii) The holder concerned shall on annulment of the award surrender the insignia and scrolls of Award to the Chancellor;
 - (iii) The President may, in terms of rule 4(iii) of the Warrant restore the annulled Order if the person concerned is in every way deserving and worthy of such restoration;

The Chancery of Orders shall keep a register in which the following shall be recorded:

- (i) The name of the recipient, the date of award and the serial number of the insignia; and
 - (ii) The annulment, restoration, loss or replacement of the Insignia of the Order;
9. The President may -
