AMENDMENTS AGREED TO

JUDICIAL MATTERS AMENDMENT BILL
[B 43—2001]

NEW CLAUSE

1. That the following be a new Clause:

Amendment of section 149 of Act 24 of 1936, as amended by section 33 of Act 42 of 2000

2. Section 149 of the Insolvency Act, 1936, is amended by the substitution for the proviso to subsection (1) of the following proviso:

“Provided that when it appears to the court equitable or convenient that the estate of a person [not domiciled in the Republic be sequestrated elsewhere,] domiciled in a State which has not been designated in terms of section 2 of the Cross-Border Insolvency Act, 2000 (Act No. 42 of 2000), should be sequestrated by a court outside the Republic, or that the estate of a person over whom it has jurisdiction be sequestrated by another court within the Republic, the court may refuse or postpone the acceptance of the surrender or the sequestration.”.

NEW CLAUSE

1. That the following be a new Clause:

Amendment of section 19 of Act 67 of 1962, as amended by section 8 of Act 77 of 1996

3. The following section is substituted for section 19 of the Extradition Act, 1962:

“Persons surrendered to Republic not to be detained or tried for certain offences in certain circumstances

19. No person surrendered to the Republic by any foreign State in terms of an extradition agreement or by any designated State shall, until he or she has been returned or had an opportunity of returning to such foreign or designated State, be detained or tried in the Republic for any offence committed prior to his or her surrender other than the offence in respect of which extradition was sought or an offence of which he or she may lawfully be convicted on a charge of the offence in respect of which extradition was sought, unless such foreign or designated State or such person consents thereto: Provided that any such person may at the request of another foreign or designated State and with a view to his or her surrender to such State, be detained in the Republic for an extraditable offence which was so committed [and to which that agreement relates], provided such detention is not contrary to the laws of [or the extradition agreement with] the State which surrendered him or her to the Republic.”.

NEW CLAUSES

1. That the following be new Clauses:

Insertion of section 63A in Act 51 of 1977

6. The following section is inserted after section 63 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977:

“Release or amendment of bail conditions of accused on account of prison conditions

- 63A. (1) If a Head of Prison contemplated in the Correctional Services Act, 1998 (Act No. 111 of 1998), is satisfied that the prison population of a particular prison is reaching such proportions that it constitutes a material and imminent threat to the human dignity, physical health or safety of an accused—
- (a) who is charged with an offence falling within the category of offences—
 - (i) for which a police official may grant bail in terms of section 59; or
 - (ii) referred to in Schedule 7;
 - (b) who has been granted bail by any lower court in respect of that offence, but is unable to pay the amount of bail concerned; and
 - (c) who is not also in detention in respect of any other offence falling outside the category of offences referred to in paragraph (a),
- that Head of Prison may apply to the said court for the—
- (aa) release of the accused on warning in lieu of bail; or
 - (bb) amendment of the bail conditions imposed by that court on the accused.
- (2) (a) An application contemplated in subsection (1) must be lodged in writing with the clerk of the court, and must—
- (i) contain an affidavit or affirmation by the Head of Prison to the effect that he or she is satisfied that the prison population of the prison concerned is reaching such proportions that it constitutes a material and imminent threat to the human dignity, physical health or safety of the accused concerned; and
 - (ii) contain a written certificate by the Director of Public Prosecutions concerned, or a prosecutor authorised thereto by him or her in writing, to the effect that the prosecuting authority does not oppose the application.
- (b) The accused and his or her legal representative, if any, must be notified of an application referred to in subsection (1).
- (c) The clerk of the court must, without delay, cause the application to be placed before any magistrate or regional magistrate, as the case may be, who may consider the application in chambers.
- (d) The application may be considered in the presence of the accused if the magistrate or regional magistrate deems it necessary.
- (3) (a) If the magistrate or regional magistrate is satisfied that the application complies with the requirements set out in subsection (2)(a), he or she may—
- (i) order the release of the accused from custody and, if the accused is present, warn him or her to appear before a specified court at a specified time on a specified date in connection with such offence or, as the case may be, to

- remain in attendance at the proceedings relating to the offence in question, and the court may, at the time of such order or at any time thereafter, impose any condition referred to in section 62 in connection with such release; or
- (ii) reduce the amount of bail determined under section 60 and, if deemed appropriate, amend or supplement any condition imposed under section 60 or 62.

(b) If the accused is absent when an order referred to in paragraph (a)(i) is made or when bail conditions are amended in terms of paragraph (a)(ii), a correctional official duly authorised by the Head of the prison where the accused is in custody must—

- (i) hand to the accused a certified copy of the said order or of the bail conditions as amended and explain to the accused the import thereof; and
- (ii) return to the clerk of the court a certificate under the hand of that official and signed by the accused, that he or she has handed the certified copy of such order or conditions to the accused and that he or she has explained to the accused the import thereof, and the mere production to the court of the said certificate shall be prima facie proof that the said certified copy was handed and explained to the accused.

(c) The provisions of section 72(2)(a) apply, with the necessary changes, in respect of an accused released in terms of paragraph (a)(i).

(4) (a) The National Director of Public Prosecutions may, in consultation with the Commissioner of Correctional Services, issue directives regarding—

- (i) the establishment of monitoring and consultative mechanisms for bringing an application contemplated in subsection (1); and
- (ii) the procedure to be followed by a Head of Prison and a Director of Public Prosecutions whenever it appears that it is necessary to bring an application contemplated in subsection (1).

(b) Any directives issued in terms of paragraph (a) must be submitted to Parliament before they take effect.”.

Substitution of section 64 of Act 51 of 1977, as substituted by section 6 of Act 75 of 1995 and amended by section 5 of Act 85 of 1997

7. The following section is substituted for section 64 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977:

“Proceedings with regard to bail and conditions to be recorded in full

64. The court dealing with bail proceedings as contemplated in section 50(6) or which considers bail under section 60 or which imposes any further condition under section 62 or which, under section 63 or 63A, amends the amount of bail or amends or supplements any condition or refuses to do so, shall record the relevant proceedings in full, including the conditions imposed and any amendment or supplementation thereof, or shall cause such proceedings to be recorded in full, and where such court is a magistrate’s court or a regional court, any document purporting to be an extract from the record of proceedings of that court and purporting to be certified as correct by the clerk of the court, and which sets out the conditions of bail and any amendment or supplementation thereof, shall, on its mere production in any court in which the relevant charge is pending, be prima facie proof of such conditions or any amendment or supplementation thereof.”.
