MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE FINANCIAL SERVICES LAWS GENERAL AMENDMENT BILL, 2012

1 BACKGROUND TO BILL

- 1.1 The Bill was considered and approved by the Minister of Finance and Cabinet on 22 February 2012. The Bill was thereafter released for public comment on 9 March 2012. The public comment period was extended from 13 April 2012 to 2 May 2012, to accommodate stakeholder requests for an extension.
- 1.2 The Bill amends eleven financial sector laws to address legislative gaps highlighted after the 2008 financial crisis and to align these laws with the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008), and other legislation. Many of these gaps were noted in the policy paper, “A safer financial sector to serve South Africa better”, published by the National Treasury (“the NT”) with the 2011 Budget. The paper outlined 15 principles that will guide the reform of South Africa’s financial regulatory architecture. However, it should be noted that the proposed amendments do not cover the more fundamental reforms envisaged in the shift towards a twin peaks model of financial regulation, but rather address the more urgent legislative gaps and the removal of inconsistencies in current legislation. Amendments to legislation to introduce the twin peaks model are expected to be published in 2013.
- 1.3 The eleven financial sector Acts amended in this Bill include the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990), the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998), Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 80 of 2001), the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 52 of 1998), the Short-term Insurance Act, 1998 (Act No. 53 of 1998), the Pension Funds Act, 1956 (Act No. 24 of 1956), the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002 (Act No. 37 of 2002), the Co-operative Banks Act, 2007 (Act No. 40 of 2007), and the South African Reserve Bank Act, 1989 (Act No. 90 of 1989).
- 1.4 A total of 35 submissions were received during the public comment process. Each submission was thoroughly considered by the NT and the Financial Services Board (“the FSB”).
- 1.5 The NT held an information session with key industry stakeholders, including the Association of Savings and Investments South Africa, the South African Insurance Association, the Banking Association of South Africa and the Institute of Retirement Funds. The purpose of the information session was to provide a broad overview of the objectives of the Bill and to clarify comments received on the Bill. The NT also engaged with the Congress of South African Trade Unions, the FSB, the South African Reserve Bank (“the SARB”), the Department of Trade and Industry and the Financial Intelligence Centre.
- 1.6 The Bill effects amendments to take into account comments received during the public consultation process.

2 OBJECTS OF BILL

The primary objective of the Bill is to ensure that even during the transition to the twin peaks system, South Africa has a sounder and better regulated financial services industry which promotes financial stability by—

- strengthening the financial sector regulatory framework;
- enhancing the supervisory powers of the regulators; and
- enhancing the powers of the Government to address potential risks to the financial system.

3 SUMMARY OF BILL

3.1 The Bill addresses several urgent areas by—

- closing gaps identified by the Financial Sector Assessment Program conducted by the International Monetary Fund (“IMF”) and World Bank regarding South Africa’s adherence to international standards for financial regulation;
- aligning financial sector legislation with the Companies Act, 2008;
- eliminating overlaps caused by the Consumer Protection Act, 2008 (Act No. 68 of 2008), the Companies Act, 2008 and the Competition Amendment Act, 2009 (Act No.1 of 2009); and
- making the FSB the lead regulator where there is concurrent jurisdiction.

3.2 The Bill seeks to strengthen the financial sector regulatory framework by—

- updating and aligning existing legislation to the Companies Act, 2008;
- resolving regulatory overlaps caused by the Consumer Protection Act, 2008 and the Competition Act, 1998 (Act No. 89 of 1998);
- closing regulatory gaps identified by the Financial Sector Assessment Program conducted by the IMF and World Bank in existing legislation regarding South Africa’s adherence to international standards for financial regulation;
- rationalising and aligning FSB Registrars’ supervisory powers;
- providing for enhanced supervisory powers by establishing the FSB as the lead regulator where there is concurrent jurisdiction in respect of the same entities;
- clarifying the status of FSB legislation in relation to other legislation, to the extent that such legislation may impact on the stability of the financial services sector and impede effective supervision; and
- effecting technical amendments to clarify the intent and purpose of certain provisions.

3.3 The Bill also provides for the following:

- Repealing all current Advisory and Standing Committees with the aim of rationalising the consultation process;
- enabling the SARB to provide emergency liquidity to the banking system during a financial crisis;
- amending the Co-operative Banks Act, 2007 (Act No. 40 of 2007), to provide for the SARB to be the sole supervisor of Co-operative Banks; and
- amending the definition of “business of a medical scheme” in the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 (Act No. 131 of 1998), to correctly reflect the intention of the Medical Scheme Act, 1998, and to facilitate the appropriate demarcation between health insurance products and medical schemes.

3.4 The Bill was finalised in response to comments received during the public consultation process. A number of general comments were received in relation to the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998, the Short-term Insurance Act, 1998, the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002, and the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001. Key amendments were also introduced in the Financial Services Board Act, 1990, and the Pension Funds Act, 1956, to address comments received.

3.5 Key amendments effected in the Financial Services Board Act, 1990, include the following:

- Limitation of liability of the regulator if it exercises the powers conferred upon them in terms of statute provided those powers were exercised in good faith (“bona fide”);
- empowering the Minister to prescribe a code of engagement, consultation and communication for the FSB;
- appropriately defining the relationship of FSB legislation with other legislation;
- postponing addressing the emergency powers of the Minister that were included in the version of the Bill that was published for public comment, to the “Twin Peaks” regulatory framework;
- providing for exemptions and directives to be tabled as part of the FSB annual report to Parliament and to be published on the official web site in order to reduce the costs associated with publication in the Government Gazette; and
- ensuring that information received by the FSB is treated confidentially.

3.6 Key amendments effected in the Pension Funds Act, 1956, include the following:

- Whistle blowing protection for Board members, valuers, principal officers, deputy officers and employees who disclose material information to the Registrar;
- empowering the Registrar to prescribe requirements relating to training and skills for Board members;
- extending personal liability to employers in respect of non-payment of pension contributions to a fund;
- protection for Board members from joint and several liabilities if they act independently, honestly, in exercising their fiduciary obligations;
- requiring pension funds to notify the Registrar of their intention to submit an application to register prior to commencing the business of a pension fund; and
- providing for a trustee education requirement.

3.7 The Bill is divided into the following 12 parts:

- Part 1: Amendments to Pension Funds Act, 1956 (clauses 1 to 52);
- Part 2: Amendment to South African Reserve Bank Act, 1989 (clause 53);
- Part 3: Amendments to Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (clauses 54 to 68);

- Part 5: Amendments to Short-term Insurance Act, 1998 (clauses 111 to 147);

4. ORGANISATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS CONSULTED

The NT has extensively engaged with the FSB, and has consulted with the SARB and the Financial Intelligence Centre. A draft Bill was published for public comment. All comments received were carefully considered and amendments were effected to the Bill. Consultations were also held with industry associations to discuss the comments that they submitted in respect of the Bill.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The Bill will not have any financial implications for the FSB or the supervisor of co-operative banks.

6. CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

None.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

- 7.1 The State Law Advisers and the National Treasury are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 75 of the Constitution, since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
- 7.2 The State Law Advisers are of the opinion that it is not necessary to refer this Bill to the National House of Traditional Leaders in terms of section 18(1)(a) of the Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act, 2003 (Act No. 41 of 2003), since it does not contain provisions pertaining to customary law or customs of traditional communities.
