

Leading international directory

CHAMBERS GLOBAL

recognises excellence at Webber Wentzel

Chambers Global, the leading directory that provides independent and impartial insight and feedback on the capabilities of law firms and individual lawyers, has recently released its 2017 results. We value the input from Chambers Global as its results are based on in-depth research from market commentators, competitors and most importantly our clients.

Chambers Global is the directory most used by international in-house counsel to identify law firms/ individuals to use. The criteria on which rankings are assessed include:

Legal knowledge and experience

Ability

Effectiveness

Client-service

RANKED IN

21

practice areas, reflecting our broad spectrum expertise

4

Africa

17

South Africa

Banking & Finance
Corporate/M&A
Projects & Energy
Projects & Energy:
Mining & Minerals

Banking & Finance
Capital Markets: Debt
Capital Markets: Equity
Competition/Antitrust
Construction
Corporate/M&A
Dispute Resolution
Employment
Energy & Natural Resources: Mining Environment
Intellectual Property
IT & Telecommunications
Media & Broadcasting
Projects & Energy
Real Estate
Shipping
Tax

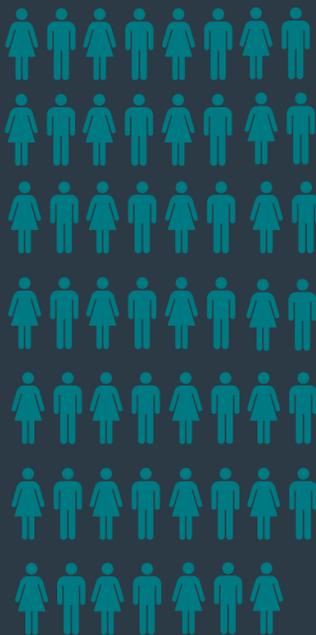

13

of our practice areas feature in Band

1

reflecting our leading position in the market

MORE THAN ANY LAW FIRM IN SOUTH AFRICA

We achieved 55 individual rankings, reflecting the number of partners in our firm that are our industry leaders

MORE THAN ANY LAW FIRM IN SOUTH AFRICA

“We are grateful to those that took the time to provide feedback to the research teams at Chambers and very proud of how the results reflect on our firm. The rankings are indicative of the strong relationships we have with our clients, the respect that our people enjoy from their peers and the excellent calibre of our people and services.”

- Christo Els, Senior Partner at Webber Wentzel

Chambers Global (a guide published by Chambers and Partners) gives recognition to lawyers and law firms based on thousands of interviews with clients and other lawyers and by assessing recent work done. It covers 185 jurisdictions and includes region-wide and global-wide categories.