PROCLAMATION
BY THE
PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

NATIONAL PROSECUTING AUTHORITY ACT, 1998

Determination of Powers, Duties and Functions of a Special Director of Public Prosecutions

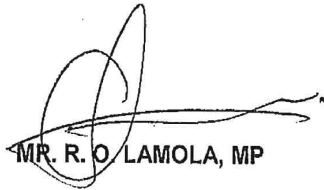

Under section 13(1)(c) of the National Prosecuting Authority Act, 1998 (Act No. 32 of 1998), I, hereby confer, impose and assign the following powers, duties and functions on or to ADV ETRICIA MATZKE, a Special Director of Public Prosecutions in the National Prosecutions Service (NPS), appointed in terms of the said provisions:

- () To institute and conduct criminal proceedings on behalf of the State and to carry out any necessary functions incidental thereto.
- (a) To give effect to the laws of South Africa and conduct prosecutions and perform incidental function without fear, favour or prejudice.
- (b) To promote partner integration in the Criminal Justice System.
- (c) To advance and protect the interests of victims of crime and to develop and implement strategies to solve and prevent crime.
- (d) To participate in the development and to implement the Strategic Plan of the NPA and to provide leadership to all members of the prosecuting authority within the jurisdiction of a particular division.
- (e) To assist the Deputy National Director in managing all Directors of Public Prosecutions in the nine provinces in South Africa.
- (f) To ensure that the NPS is well-governed and that there are high levels of integrity throughout the NPS.
- (g) To provide strategic leadership and management.

- (h) To participate in the development of the national strategic objectives of the NPA and the Annual Plan of the NPS.
- (i) To lead and or participate in the activities of national projects of the NPS.
- (j) To lead staff members to achieve the strategic objectives.
- (k) To oversee resources and align them to strategic objectives.
- (l) To monitor the execution of Provincial Operational Plans.
- (m) To review and manage the performance of staff in the NPS national office.
- (n) To manage the resources of the NPS efficiently and effectively and to ensure good financial management in the Unit.
- (o) To prepare an Annual Report on the activities of the NPS to the Head of the NPS and the National Director.
- (p) To deal with representations and complaints from members of the public as well as members of the NPS.
- (q) To ensure that a high standard of professional work is being carried out.
- (r) To promote partner integration, community involvement and customer satisfaction in conjunction with partners in the Criminal Justice System.
- (s) The NPA has undertaken in its Memorandum of Understanding with the South African Revenue Services to establish a specialist tax prosecution capacity within the NPA in the form of a Specialist Tax Component (the STC). The STC's role and exclusive mandate is to prosecute serious and complex tax offences. The STC is responsible for the prosecution of a tax crime, specifically where such incidences are linked to the commission of organised crime.
- (t) To manage the relationship between the Office of the NPS, the Offices of the Directors of Public Prosecutions, government departments, and external agencies.
- (u) Generally, to give such advice or rendering such assistance to the Head of the NPS as may be required to exercise the powers, carry out the duties and perform the functions which are conferred or imposed on or assigned to the Head of the NPS by the National Director, the Constitution, the National Prosecuting Authority Act, 1998, or any other law.

Given under my Hand at PRETORIA on this 08 day of March Two Thousand and Twenty-Two.
