MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CITIZENSHIP AMENDMENT BILL, 1997

The South African Citizenship Act, 1995—

- (a) does not grant as of right South African citizenship to persons who were citizens of the former TBVC states by registration;
- (b) does not empower the Minister of Home Affairs clearly and specifically to exempt South African citizens from the deprivation of citizenship when making use of the passport facilities of another country;
- (c) does not adequately provide for the resumption of South African citizenship by persons who have lost their citizenship by virtue of the provisions of laws repealed by the said Act; and
- (d) does not clearly and specifically provide that a citizen of the former TBVC states or citizenship of those states is a South African citizen or South African citizenship, respectively.

The objects of the Bill are to rectify the said deficiencies.

In the opinion of the State Law Adviser, the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 75 of the Constitution.
