Learnerships

16. A SETA may establish a learnership if— 40

- (a) the learnership consists of a structured learning component;
- (b) the learnership includes practical work experience of a specified nature and duration;
- (c) the learnership would lead to a qualification registered by the South African Qualifications Authority and related to an occupation; and 45
- (d) the intended learnership is registered with the Director-General in the prescribed manner.

Learnership agreements

17. (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a “learnership agreement” means an agreement entered into for a specified period between—
- (a) a learner;
 - (b) an employer or a group of employers (in this section referred to as “the employer”); and
 - (c) a training provider accredited by a body contemplated in section 5(1)(a)(ii)(bb) of the South African Qualifications Authority Act or group of such training providers.
- (2) The terms of a learnership agreement must oblige—
- (a) the employer to—
 - (i) employ the learner for the period specified in the agreement;
 - (ii) provide the learner with the specified practical work experience; and
 - (iii) release the learner to attend the education and training specified in the agreement;
 - (b) the learner to—
 - (i) work for the employer; and
 - (ii) attend the specified education and training; and
 - (c) the training provider to provide—
 - (i) the education and training specified in the agreement; and

- (3) A learnership agreement must be in the prescribed form and registered with a SETA in the prescribed manner.
- (4) A learnership agreement may not be terminated before the expiry of the period of duration specified in the agreement unless—
- (a) the learner meets the requirements for the successful completion of the learnership;
 - (b) the SETA which registered the agreement approves of such termination; or
 - (c) the learner is fairly dismissed for a reason related to the learner’s conduct or capacity as an employee.
- (5) The employer or training provider that is party to a learnership agreement may be substituted with—
- (a) the consent of the learner; and
 - (b) the approval of the SETA which registered the agreement.
- (6) A SETA must, in the prescribed manner, provide the Director-General with a record of learnership agreements registered by the SETA.

Contract of employment with learner

18. (1) If a learner was in the employment of the employer party to the learnership agreement concerned when the agreement was concluded, the learner’s contract of employment is not affected by the agreement.
- (2) If the learner was not in the employment of the employer party to the learnership agreement concerned when the agreement was concluded, the employer and learner must enter into a contract of employment.
- (3) The contract of employment with a learner contemplated in subsection (2) is subject to any terms and conditions that may be determined by the Minister on the recommendation of the Employment Conditions Commission established by section 59(1) of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act.
- (4) Chapters Eight and Nine¹ of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act apply, with the changes required by the context, to a determination made in terms of subsection (3) except that—
- (a) for the purposes of section 54(3) of that Act, the Employment Conditions Commission must also consider the likely impact that any proposed condition

1. Chapters Eight and Nine of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act (“BCEA”), provide for the publication of sector determinations by the Minister on basic conditions of employment on the advice of the Employment Conditions Commission. Before the Commission advises the Minister on the publication of a determination: (a) the Department of Labour conducts an investigation and prepares a report; (b) the Commission then considers the report in the light of a number of factors set out in section 54(3) of the BCEA and in this process may hold public hearings; and then (c) gives its advice in a report to the Minister. The effect of this section is to allow for the setting of terms and conditions of employment for learners in a similar way to the setting of conditions of apprenticeship under the Manpower Training Act, 1981 (Act No. 56 of 1981), in so far as conditions of employment are concerned—see section 13(2)(c) and (k) to (p). The provisions of the BCEA are sufficiently flexible to allow for sector and cross-sector determinations for learnerships of employment may have on the employment of learners and the achievement of the purposes of this Act; and

(b) section 55(7) of that Act does not apply.

(5) The contract of employment of a learner may not be terminated before the expiry of the period of duration specified in the learnership agreement unless the learnership agreement is terminated in terms of section 17(4). 5

(6) The contract of employment of a learner terminates at the expiry of the period of duration specified in the learnership agreement unless the agreement was concluded with a person who was already in the employment of the employer party to the agreement when the agreement was concluded 10

Disputes about learnerships

19. (1) For the purposes of this section a “dispute” means a dispute about—

(a) the interpretation or application of any provision of—

(i) a learnership agreement;

(ii) a contract of employment of a learner; or 15

(iii) a determination made in terms of section 18(3);

(b) this Chapter; or

(c) the termination of—

(i) a learnership agreement; or

(ii) a contract of employment of a learner. 20

(2) Any party to a dispute may in writing refer the dispute to the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration established by section 112 of the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995).

(3) The party who so refers the dispute must satisfy that Commission that a copy of the referral has been served on all the other parties to the dispute. 25

(4) The Commission must attempt to resolve the dispute through conciliation.

(5) If the dispute remains unresolved, any party may request that the dispute be resolved through arbitration as soon as possible.

(6) The law that applies to the lawfulness² and fairness³ of a dismissal for a reason related to an employee’s capacity or conduct applies to a dispute contemplated in subsection (1)(c)(ii). 30

SKILLS PROGRAMMES

Skills programmes

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SKILLS DEVELOPMENT BILL, 1998

1. Purpose of Bill

South Africa has a poor skills profile as a result of the poor quality of general education for the majority of South Africans, the poor relevance of much publicly funded training and the low level of investment by firms into training. This poor profile inhibits productivity growth in firms, new investment prospects and employability of the young and unemployed. The sustainability of small and medium-sized enterprises is similarly impaired.

The Skills Development Bill seeks to develop the skills of the South African workforce and thereby increase the quality of working life for workers, improve the productivity of the workplace, promote self-employment and the delivery of social services. The Bill also seeks to encourage employers to use the workplace as an active learning environment and to provide opportunities for new entrants to the labour market to gain work experience.

A special focus in the Bill is to improve the employment prospects of previously disadvantaged persons through education and training. The employment services are to focus on helping work-seekers to find work; retrenched workers to re-enter the labour market and employers to find qualified employees.

Alignment of the Skills Development Bill and the South African Qualification Authority Act is ensured to promote the quality of learning in and for the labour market. Giving organised employers and workers greater responsibility for ensuring the relevance of training will also enhance quality.

The objects of the Bill, as well as the envisaged Skills Development Levies Bill, are to be achieved by establishing a stronger institutional and financial framework than previously existed under the Manpower Training Act, 1981 (Act No. 56 of 1981). The National Training Board is to be replaced by a National Skills Authority (NSA). The NSA is an advisory body to the Minister of Labour with responsibility for ensuring that national skills development strategies, plans, priorities and targets are set and adhered to. Industry training boards will be replaced by sector education and training authorities (SETAs) responsible for developing sector skills plans which align to the national skills strategies and targets. The sector skills plans will be presented to the National Skills Authority and approved by the Minister of Labour.

The Skills Development Bill introduces a compulsory levy, equivalent to 1% of the payroll of all companies. The levy is to be collected by SETAs and national collection agency designated by the Minister of Labour. Twenty per cent of the funds collected is to be paid into the National Skills Fund. The remaining eighty per cent will be paid as grants to firms that carry out accredited training that meets criteria linked to the sector skills plan.

Two learning programmes are identified in the Bill. The first is learnerships. These incorporate traditional apprenticeships. They include structured learning and work experience that leads to nationally registered, occupationally linked qualifications in areas of skill, need or opportunity in the labour market. These will assist young unemployed people to enter employment, as well as existing workers to improve their skills levels. The second are skills programmes. These are not learnerships, but should also meet quality and relevance criteria to qualify for grant payments from SETAs or the National Skills Fund.

The Bill binds the State. Government departments are required to budget 1% of their personnel costs for skills development. It is envisaged that government departments will participate in a Public Service Education and Training Authority as well as relevant SETAs.

2. Content of Bill

2.1 National Skills Authority (NSA)

Chapter 2 sets out the functions of the NSA (clause 5) and the composition of the NSA (clause 6). Clause 7 provides for the NSA to adopt a constitution. Clause 8 requires the Director General to appoint an executive officer for the NSA and provides for the resources necessary for its effective functioning.

2.2 Sector education and training authorities (SETAs)

Chapter 3 provides for SETAs. Clause 9 empowers the Minister to establish SETAs in accordance with the criteria specified therein. The functions and composition of SETAs are set out in clauses 10 and 11. SETAs may establish chambers for sub-sectors in the SETA (clause 12). Provision is also made for a constitution for each SETA (clause 13). All financial matters regarding SETAs are dealt with in clause 14. This includes the sources of funds for SETAs, the requirements governing the investment of revenue by SETAs, the manner in which the funds may be used, and the budgeting, financial reporting and auditing procedures SETAs must follow. The conditions under which the Minister may require the Director General to take over the administration of a SETA and the procedures the Director General must follow are described in clause 15.

2.3 Learnerships

Chapter 4 deals with learnerships, which consist of a structured learning component and practical work experience leading to a qualification tied to an occupation and recognised by the South African Qualifications Authority (clause 16). A learnership agreement is entered into between a learner, employer or group of employers and an accredited training provider or group of training providers. The agreement confers specific responsibilities on each party to the agreement. The conditions under which a learnership agreement may be terminated are also specified. (See clause 17.)

A contract of employment with a learner already in employment is unaffected by a learnership agreement. Where a learner entering an agreement is not in employment, a contract of employment must be entered into between the learner and employer party. The Minister, on the advice of the Employment Conditions Commissions, must determine the terms and conditions of this employment contract. The conditions under which an employment contract with a learner may be terminated are also specified. (See clause 18.) Procedures for dealing with disputes about learnerships are dealt with in clause 19.

2.4 Skills programmes

Chapter 5 deals with skills programmes that are not learnerships. The procedures for accessing grants or subsidies to fund skills development are specified. The monitoring procedures and conditions under which sector education and training authorities or the Director General may withhold such funds are specified. (See clause 20.) Disputes relating to skills programmes may be referred to the Labour Court for adjudication (clause 21).

2.5 Institutions in Department of Labour

Chapter 6 deals with two institutions with the Department that are central to the delivery of the Bill. The first is the Skills Development Planning Unit, which is responsible for coordinating planning for skills development. The Director General must establish the Unit to carry out the functions specified in clause 22. The second is employment services, which will provide a range of services, specified in clause 23, to unemployed individuals, employers and new labour market entrants. That clause also empowers the Minister to require employers to notify a labour centre of any vacancy and of the employment of any work-seeker referred by a labour centre.

Clause 24 regulates the provision of employment services for gain. Before such a service can be offered it must be registered through the Director General. The Director General may cancel the registration of an employment service if it fails to comply with prescribed requirements, but the Director General must follow the procedures specified under clause 25.

2.6 Financing skills development

The establishment of the National Skills Fund, its sources of funds, the purposes for which the funds may be used and the control and administration of the Fund are set out in clauses 27 to 30. The envisaged Skills Development Levies Bill provides that 20% of the levies collected in terms thereof must be paid into that Fund.

2.7 General

Chapter 8 deals with—

- (a) the jurisdiction of the Labour Court (clause 31);
- (b) monitoring, enforcement and legal proceedings (clause 32);
- (c) offences (clause 33);
- (d) jurisdiction over the imposition of penalties and the scope of penalties that may be imposed (clause 34);
- (e) delegations by the Minister and the Director-General (clause 35); and
- (f) the Minister's power to make regulations.

2.8 Schedules to Bill

3. Parties consulted

The National Training Strategy Initiative constituted by the National Training Board ("NTB") recommended that additional research was needed regarding the financing and governance of occupationally based education and training in the country. The Minister of Labour requested that these recommendations be effected. The NTB and NEDLAC commissioned consultants to carry out research in these areas from 1995 to 1996. The reports focused on international experience in the financing and governance of education and training systems, local experience as well as on the levels of expenditure on training by the private and public sectors in South Africa. These reports formed the basis of the Department of Labour's further policy development work.

The NTB submitted, on the request of the Minister of Labour, a draft Human Resources Development Green Paper on 30 September 1996 to be used as a basis for the Green Paper.

The Department of Labour published the Skills Development Strategy for Economic and Employment Growth Green Paper on 24 March 1996 and invited parties to submit comments. Where appropriate, comments were included in the draft Skills Development Bill published in the Gazette on 2 September 1997. A total of 134 organisations, trade unions, councils and other non-governmental bodies submitted supportive comments and some concerns. Where appropriate, comments were incorporated in a revised Skills Development Bill.

Consultative meetings were held with the following bodies or persons: NTB, government representatives for the Departments of Education, Public Service and Administration, Minerals and Energy, Constitutional Development, Finance, Trade and Industry, Telecommunications, the Youth Commission and all Directors-General.

Presentations and workshops were conducted with all provinces, training boards, trade unions, the Portfolio Committee on Labour, industries and businesses on request and other non-governmental bodies. The consultative meetings and workshops assisted the Department of Labour in re-drafting the Bill.

The following NEDLAC members were also involved in the consultation process: organised business (Business South Africa), organised labour (Cosatu, Nactu and Fedusa); government departments (Labour, Finance, Constitutional Development, Trade and Industry, and Public Service and Administration) and the community development sector (SA Women's Coalition, SA National Youth Council, Disabled People of SA and Rural Foundation). A report is available which covers in detail the NEDLAC negotiation process regarding the Bill.

4. Parliamentary procedure

The Department of Labour and the State Law Advisers are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with by Parliament in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996.
