Schedule 2DETERMINATION BY LOT FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 7(2)(b)

1. Upon having appointed the six other councillors in terms of section 5 of this Act, the National Assembly must forthwith proceed, in an open and transparent manner, to determine by lot, as required by section 7(2)(b) of this Act, which three of such six other councillors must vacate their offices upon the expiration of two years after their appointment, for which purpose the National Assembly must designate from its own number the person who must conduct the lot (hereinafter referred to as the designated person).

2. The designated person must thereupon ensure that the name of each one of the six other councillors is written on a separate piece of paper of equal size and identical shape and colour.

3. The designated person must thereafter display the six pieces of paper contemplated in item 2 to every person who is present at the place where the lot is being conducted and who is desirous of inspecting any such piece of paper.

4. The designated person must thereafter fold every such piece of paper in such a manner that the name thereon is not visible, and place all such pieces of paper in an empty container.

5. The designated person must thereupon appoint an impartial person (hereinafter referred to as the drawer) to draw three pieces of paper from the said container.

6. The designated person must thereafter shake the container in such a manner as to thoroughly mix the pieces of paper therein, and must hold such container in such a position that the drawer is unable to see the pieces of paper inside.

7. The drawer must thereafter draw three pieces of paper from such container and hand them to the designated person without unfolding any of them.

8. The designated person must then unfold each of the three pieces of paper handed to him or her as contemplated in item 7, read out the names written thereon and display every such piece of paper to every person who is present at the place where the lot is being conducted and who is desirous of inspecting the same.

9. The three persons whose names have been so drawn, must vacate their offices as councillors two years after the date of their appointment as such.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE INDEPENDENT COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF SOUTH AFRICA BILL, 2000

1. The main object of the Bill is to establish the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa (“the Authority”). The Authority is established pursuant to the constitutional requirement that national legislation must establish an independent authority to regulate broadcasting in the public interest, and to ensure fairness and a diversity of views broadly representing South African society (section 192 of the Constitution). However, since technological and other developments in the fields of broadcasting and telecommunications are causing a rapid convergence of these fields, it is proposed that the Authority also be empowered to regulate telecommunications. It is also proposed that the Authority acts through a council, the councillors of which are to be appointed by the President on the advice of the Portfolio Committee on Communication.

2. The Bill seeks to dissolve the Independent Broadcasting Authority established by the Independent Broadcasting Authority Act, 1993 (Act No. 153 of 1993), and the South African Telecommunications Regulatory Authority established by the Telecommunications Act, 1996 (Act No. 103 of 1996) (“the former authorities”). It is proposed that the functions set out in the Independent Broadcasting Authority Act, 1993, and the Telecommunications Act, 1996 (“the underlying statutes”), now be performed by the Authority.

3. The Bill also seeks to amend the underlying statutes to give effect to the proposals mentioned in paragraphs 1 and 2. Certain transitional provisions in respect of the transfer of staff from the former authorities to the Authority, the passing of assets and liabilities from the former authorities to the Authority and pending matters are also proposed in the Bill.

4. INSTITUTIONS CONSULTED

The South African Telecommunications Regulatory Authority (“SATRA”) and the Independent Broadcasting Authority (“IBA”) were consulted.

5. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The merged authority resulting from the Bill will utilise the budget presently allocated to the IBA and SATRA. There will therefore not be any additional financial implications for the State.

6. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Communications are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
