MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN BOXING BILL, 2001

The Bill has been drafted to provide for a new structure to oversee professional boxing in the Republic to—

- (a) create synergy between amateur and professional boxing and
- (b) promote interaction between associations of boxers, managers, trainers, promoters and officials and Boxing SA, the new Boxing Commission.

In order to achieve the aims of the Bill, provision is made for Boxing SA to fulfil the various objects of the Bill (clause 2). Clause 3 provides for the way in which the Bill should be interpreted.

Clauses 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 provide for the establishment, powers and duties of an independent juristic person, Boxing SA, which will control boxing in the Republic. Boxing SA has specified functions for the purposes of attaining its objects (clauses 7 and 8). Boxing SA will consist of no fewer than four and no more than seven members appointed by the Minister on a part-time basis. The members may be paid, out of the funds of Boxing SA, such honoraria annually and such allowances for expenses reasonably incurred by them as the Minister, in consultation with the Minister of Finance, may determine (clause 10). The meetings and quorum for such meetings have also been provided for in the Bill (clause 11).

The Bill further provides for the appointment of a Chief Executive Officer by Boxing SA, in consultation with the Minister and the Minister of Finance. The Chief Executive Officer will manage and direct the activities of Boxing SA as well as supervise and appoint the staff of Boxing SA (clauses 12 and 14). The Chief Executive Officer will be required to enter into a performance agreement with the Minister and Boxing SA (clause 13).

Provision has also been made for the funds of Boxing SA which will come from various sources as well as for the capacity in which Boxing SA may enter into agreements with other parties (clauses 15 and 16). The Bill also provides for the delegation of the powers and duties of Boxing SA (clause 17).

Clause 18 proposes that tournaments must be authorised by Boxing SA. Clause 19 provides for the registration of boxers, officials, trainers, managers and promoters. Clause 20 prohibits the holding of or taking part in certain boxing fights by certain persons. Under specific circumstances boxing contests may be stopped or forbidden (clause 21).

The conflict of interest between a member and employee, etc. of Boxing SA and a person who sanctions, arranges or promotes a professional boxing fight has also been addressed (clause 22) and a firewall has been created between a boxer's promoter and manager (clause 23). Clause 24 protects a boxer from being exploited by a promoter or manager. Promotional rights to a promoter for a future boxing fight may not be granted by a boxer (clause 25) and a licensee, manager, matchmaker or promoter may not require a boxer to employ, retain or provide compensation to any individual or business as a prerequisite to such person working with the boxer (clause 26).

The Bill also provides for various offences and penalties (clause 27).

Clause 28 makes provision for boxers, managers, trainers, promoters and officials to form their respective associations or federation of associations which will be directed in terms of its constitution. These categories of persons are protected under clause 29 against discrimination.

Any legal firm, medical doctor or auditor, or agency thereof, may now be accredited by Boxing SA to resolve disputes through conciliation, scrutinise contracts and test boxers scientifically for doping (clause 30).

Procedures for the resolution of disputes have also been catered for in clause 31. The burden of proof in any proceedings under this Bill is on a balance of probabilities and must be discharge by the party who alleges that the other party is infringing his or her rights (clause 32). In terms of clause 33 the provisions of this Bill, in the event of conflict, will prevail over any other law, other than the Constitution, in force immediately prior to the date on which this Bill takes effect.

Clause 34 empowers the Minister to make regulations. Clause 35 provides for the repeal of the Boxing and Wrestling Control Act, 1954 (Act No. 39 of 1954), and clause 36 contains the short title.

Parliamentary procedure

On 20 September 2000 the Joint Tagging Mechanism (JTM) found that the South African Boxing Bill [B 58—2000] includes provisions to which the procedure set out in section 75 of the Constitution applies as well as provisions to which the procedure set out in section 76 of the Constitution applies. The JTM classified the Bill as a mixed section 75/76 Bill and, since there is no procedure whereby Parliament can pass such a mixed Bill, found that the Bill was out of order.

The South African Boxing Bill [B 58—2000] has thereupon been redrafted omitting the provisions to which the procedure set out in section 76 of the Constitution applies. The State Law Advisers and the Department of Sport and Recreation are of the opinion that the redrafted Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
