- (4) The provisions of section 35(2) and (4) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), shall mutatis mutandis apply to any forfeiture in terms of subsection (3)(b) of this section.

CHAPTER-5

General Provisions

50

Correction, cancellation and replacement

19. (1) If—

- (a) an identity card does not reflect correctly the particulars of the person to whom it was issued; or
- (b) a temporary identity certificate or any certificate does not reflect correctly the particulars of the person to whom it was issued, 55 the person concerned or the guardian of the person to whom ~~the~~ card or certificate was issued, as the case may be, shall within the prescribed period hand over or send by registered post the identity card, temporary identity certificate or certificate, as the case may be, to the Director-General.

(2) If the identity card, temporary identity certificate or certificate referred to in 5 subsection (1) is not handed over or sent in accordance with that subsection, the Director-General may in the prescribed manner obtain restoration thereof or seize it.

(3) If by virtue of this section the Director-General has obtained possession of—

- (a) an identity card, he or she shall, subject to section 16, without delay cancel it in the prescribed manner and, subject to sections 9 and 10, replace it with a 10 corrected identity card; or
- (b) a temporary identity certificate or any certificate, he or she shall without delay—
 - (i) effect the necessary corrections directly on the temporary identity certificate or certificate, as the case may be, if in his or her opinion it can 15 be done; or
 - (ii) in the prescribed manner cancel and replace it with a corrected temporary identity certificate or appropriate certificate, as the case may be.

(4) When it comes to the attention of the Director-General that an identity card has been issued to a person whose name is not required in terms of section 3 to be included 20 in the population register, the Director-General shall request that person to return the identity card for cancellation.

Surrender or seizure of identity card of deceased person

20. (1) Any person who has in his or her possession a document being or purporting to be an uncanceled identity card of a person who has died, shall within 30 days after 25 the document came into his or her possession, hand over or send by registered post such document for cancellation to the Director-General.

(2) A document handed over or sent to the Director-General in terms of subsection(1), shall without delay after the receipt thereof be cancelled and destroyed in the prescribed manner and, unless a relative of the deceased person indicates in writing that he or she 30 wants it.

(3) When it comes to the attention of the Director-General that any person is in possession of a document being or purporting to be an uncanceled identity card of a person who has died, he or she shall without delay seize that document. and thereupon the provisions of subsection (2) shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of that 35 document.

Secrecy

21. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), no person shall publish or communicate to any other person any information recorded in the population register, an identity card, a temporary identity certificate or any certificate which he or she acquired 40 by virtue of his or her functions in terms of any law, except for the purposes of this Act, judicial proceedings or the performance of his or her functions in terms of any other law, and no person who came into possession of any such information which to his or her knowledge has been communicated to him or her in contravention of the provisions of this section, shall publish the information or communicate it to any other person. 45

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Director-General may furnish any information in respect of a person whose name is included in the population register to—

- (a) any person or institution on behalf of, and on the written instruction of, any such person; 50
- (b) any State department, municipality or statutory body;
- (c) any organisation, body, society or institution whose main activity is insurance business as defined in the Insurance Act, 1943 (Act No. 27 of 1943), or banking as contemplated in the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990); or
- (d) any other organisation, body, society or institution, 55

subject to the restrictions, conditions, exclusions, directives and fees as may be prescribed.

(3) No information may be furnished to any organisation, body, society or institution contemplated in subsection (2) unless the information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, is in the public interest, or is for the compilation of a voters' roll. 5

Regulations

22. (1) The Minister may make regulations as to—

- (a) the issue of duplicate identity cards, temporary identity certificates, or other certificates, the circumstances under, and the conditions subject to, which they may be issued and the fees payable therefor; 10
- (b) the form of and the issue of certificates in respect of particulars contained in the population register or in an identity card, the purposes for which such certificates may be used and the evidential value thereof;
- (c) the issuing of instructions and the prescribing of forms by the Director-General which may be necessary for the effective execution of the provisions 15 of this Act, and in general, as to all matters which, in terms of this Act, are required or permitted to be prescribed or which he or she deems necessary or expedient to prescribe in order that the objects of this Act may be achieved.

(2) Any regulations made under subsection (1) may prescribe penalties of a fine or of 20 imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years for any contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith.

(3) A regulation made under a provision repealed by section 24 and which was in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made under this section. 25

(4) Any fees which may be prescribed under this Act shall be prescribed by the Minister with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance.

Reproduction of documents

23. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, the Director-General may, in respect of a person or class of persons determined by him or 30 her, reproduce or cause to be reproduced any document from which the population register is compiled or maintained by means of any process which in his or her opinion accurately and durably reproduces such documents, and may preserve or cause to be preserved those reproductions in lieu of such documents.

(2) A reproduction referred to in subsection (1) shall, notwithstanding anything to the 35 contrary contained in any other law, for all purposes be deemed to be the original document from which it was reproduced. and a copy of such reproduction which has been certified by the Director-General as a true copy, shall in any court of law be conclusive proof of the contents of the relevant original document.

Repeal of Laws

40

24. The Identification Act, 1986 (Act No. 72 of 1986), the Identification Amendment Act, 1991 (Act No. 21 of 1991), the Identification Amendment Act, 1993 (Act No. 4 of 1993), and the Identification Amendment Act, 1995 (Act No. 47 of 1995), are hereby repealed.

Transitional arrangements

25. (1) Notwithstanding the repeal of the laws referred to in section 24 the Director-General shall continue to issue identity documents in accordance with those laws until a date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

(2) (a) Any identity document issued in terms of an Act repealed by section 24, or which remain valid under a provision of such law, shall remain valid until an identity 50 card is issued in terms of section 14 or until a date contemplated in paragraph (b).

(b) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette fix a date for the replacement of identity documents referred to in paragraph (a) and may make regulations regarding such replacement.

Short title and commencement

26. This Act shall be called the Identification Act, 1997, and shall come into operation on a date set by the President by proclamation.
