ACT

To amend the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998, so as to further regulate the contents of notices establishing municipalities; to further regulate transitional measures when existing municipalities are disestablished and new municipalities established; to further regulate the determination of the number of councillors; to redetermine the provisions from which a municipality may be exempted; to determine the date on which the first term of municipalities end; and to further regulate the transitional arrangements; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:

CHAPTER 1

AMENDMENT OF ACT 117 OF 1998

Amendment of section 12 of Act 117 of 1998, as amended by section 93 of Act 27 of 2000 5

1. Section 12 of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution in subsection (3) for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words: 10
 “The notice establishing the municipality must [specify] set out—”;
- (b) by the insertion in subsection (3) of the following paragraph after paragraph (d): “(dA) in the case of a metropolitan or local municipality, the number of 15 wards in the municipality;”; and
- (c) by the deletion of paragraph (g) of subsection (3).

Amendment of section 14 of Act 117 of 1998

2. Section 14 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection: 20
 “(1) (a) A municipality established in terms of section 12 in a particular area, supersedes the existing municipality or municipalities to the extent that the existing municipality or municipalities fall within that area.
 (b) The superseding municipality becomes the successor in law of the existing municipality subject to paragraph (c). 25

- (c) Where a district municipality and one or more local municipalities within the area of the district municipality supersede the existing municipality or municipalities in that area, the district and local municipalities in that area become the successors in law of the existing municipality or municipalities depending on the specific assets, liabilities, rights and obligations allocated to the district and local municipalities respectively in terms of the relevant section 12 notice or notices.”; 5
- (b) by the substitution in subsection (2) for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words:
“(2) If subsection (1) is applicable, the section 12 notice, or any amendment of the section 12 notice, must—”; and 10
- (c) by the substitution in subsection (2) for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:
“(b) regulate the legal, practical and other consequences of the total or partial disestablishment of the existing municipality, including— 15
- (i) the vacation of office by councillors of the existing municipality;
 - (ii) the transfer of staff from the existing municipality to the superseding municipality, or, if there is more than one superseding municipality, to any of the superseding municipalities; 20
 - (iii) the transfer of assets, liabilities, rights and obligations, and administrative and other records, from the existing municipality to the superseding municipality, or, if there is more than one superseding municipality, to any of the superseding municipalities, taking into account the interests of creditors of the existing municipality; and 25
 - (iv) the continued application of any by-laws [regulations] and resolutions of the existing municipality to or in that area, and the extent of such application: 30
- Provided that if the superseding municipality is a district or local municipality a transfer referred to in subparagraph (ii) or (iii) must be effected in a way that would enable the superseding municipality to perform the functions or exercise the powers assigned to it in terms of section 84(1) or (2).”; 35
- (d) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:
“(3) (a) The transfer of a staff member in terms of a section 12 notice must [take place] be— 40
- (i) on conditions of service not less favourable than those under which that staff member served in the existing municipality; and
 - (ii) in accordance with the Labour Relations Act, 1995 (Act No. 66 of 1995).
- (b) A section 12 notice transferring staff of an existing municipality to a superseding municipality may determine that— 45
- (i) the staff transferred from the existing municipality to the superseding municipality form an administrative unit that functions as such until the superseding municipality has established a staff structure and has appointed staff to positions on that staff structure; and
 - (ii) such administrative unit functions under the control of the municipal manager or acting municipal manager of the superseding municipality.” 50

Amendment of section 16 of Act 117 of 1998

3. Section 16 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion of paragraph (e) of subsection (1).

CHAPTER 2

TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS IN RESPECT OF NEW LOCAL GOVERNMENT DISPENSATION

Definitions

- 12. (1) In this Chapter a word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Structures Act, has that meaning and, unless the context otherwise indicates—
- “existing municipality” means a municipality established in terms of legislation other than the Structures Act before the date of the first elections of municipal councils in terms of that Act;
- “new municipality” means a municipality established or to be established in terms of the Structures Act;
- “section 12 notice” means a notice envisaged in section 12 (1) of the Structures Act;
- “Structures Act” means the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998);
- “superseding municipality” means a new municipality which wholly or partially supersedes an existing municipality in accordance with section 14 (1) of the Structures Act;
- “transition” means the process of putting into operation the new local government dispensation as set out in the Structures Act read with Chapter 7 of the Constitution.

Duration of transition

- 13. (1) The transition ends two years from the date of the first election of municipal councils in terms of the Structures Act, unless the Minister determines a shorter period by notice in the Government Gazette.
- (2) This Chapter lapses when the transition ends.

Transitional application of section 12 of Act 117 of 1998

- 14. (1) For purposes of the transition, section 12 of the Structures Act must be regarded as permitting—
- (a) a new municipality to be named in the section 12 notice by way of a provisional designation which must consist of or include the number allocated to the area of the municipality when that area was demarcated in terms of the Demarcation Act; and
 - (b) the establishment of a district municipality, the establishment of local municipalities within the area of the district municipality, and the total or partial disestablishment of existing municipalities within that area, to be effected by way of the same section 12 notice.

(2) Section 12 (4) of the Structures Act does not apply during the transition.

Transitional application of section 14 of Act 117 of 1998

- 15. For purposes of the transition— 5
- (a) section 14(2)(b) of the Structures Act must be regarded as permitting the regulation of any legal, practical and other consequences of the disestablishment of an existing municipality, to be effected by way of an amendment to the section 12 notice disestablishing the existing municipality, provided the notice is amended before the date on which the disestablishment of the existing municipality takes effect; and 10
- (b) section 14(5) of the Structures Act must be regarded to read as follows:
- “(5)(a) The MEC for local government in a province, by notice in the Provincial Gazette, may make provision for transitional measures to facilitate the disestablishment of an existing municipality and the establishment of a new municipality. 15
- (b) The measures contemplated in paragraph (a) may include measures—
- (i) establishing a committee to advise the MEC on any matter affecting the transition; or 20
- (ii) in relation to the existing municipality, restricting or regulating the—
- (aa) alterations to the staff establishment; 25
- (bb) appointment of staff or the filling of vacancies;
- (cc) upgrading of posts or promotions; 25
- (dd) increases in salaries or wages;
- (ee) disposal or acquisition of assets;
- (ff) conclusion of contracts with a duration longer than one year or the renewal of such contracts; or 30
- (gg) use of reserve capital. 30
- (c) The MEC must consult the existing municipality before publishing the notice contemplated in paragraph (a).”.

Transitional application of section 16 of Act 117 of 1998

- 16. (1) For purposes of the transition, section 16 (2) of the Structures Act must be regarded to read as follows: 35
- “(2) Any amendment of a section 12 notice must be consistent with the provisions of this Act read with the provisions of Chapter 2 of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2000.”.
- (2) Section 16 (3) of the Structures Act does not apply when a section 12 notice is amended for purposes of the transition. 40

Transitional arrangement in respect of notice and consultation

- 17. For purposes of the transition, the MEC for local government in a province must, before publishing a notice in terms of section 12 or 16 of the Structures Act—
- (a) consult organised local government in the province; and
- (b) publish particulars of the proposed notice for public comment for at least 14 45 days.

Temporary authorisations

- 18. (1) The MEC for local government in a province, by notice in the Provincial Gazette, may authorise—
- (a) a local municipality to perform a function or exercise a power of a nature described in section 84(1) (e), (f), (g), (h), (j), (k), (l), (m) and (n) in its area or an aspect of such function or power; or 50

- (b) a district municipality to perform a function or exercise a power of the nature referred to in section 84(2) in the area of a local municipality, or an aspect of such function or power.
- (2) The MEC may issue an authorisation in terms of subsection (1) only if—
- (a) the district municipality or the local municipality, as the case may be, cannot or does not perform the function or exercise the power in the relevant area or if, for any other reason, it is necessary to ensure the continued performance of the function or exercise of the power in that area; and
 - (b) the Demarcation Board has recommended the authorisation.
- (3)(a) If the Demarcation Board has made a recommendation in favour of an authorisation and the MEC disagrees with the recommendation, the MEC must furnish reasons, in writing, to the Board and the Minister.
- (b) After considering the reasons furnished by the MEC and after consulting the Demarcation Board, the Minister may by notice in the Government Gazette issue the authorisation subject to subsection (2)(a).
- (4) The MEC or the Minister must in the notice referred to in subsection (1) or (3), as the case may be, regulate the legal, practical and other consequences of the authorisation, which may include—
- (i) the transfer of staff;
 - (ii) the transfer of assets, liabilities, rights and obligations, and administrative and other records; and
 - (iii) the continued application of any by-laws and resolutions in the area of the municipalities concerned and the extent of such application.
- (5) The MEC or Minister may amend a notice issued in terms of subsection (1) or (3), as the case may be, to effect technical changes or to regulate the authorisation more effectively.
- (6) (a) The MEC must revoke an authorisation issued in terms of subsection (1) or (3) if—
- (i) the Demarcation Board so recommends; or
 - (ii) an adjustment concerning the relevant function or power is made in terms of section 85.
- (b) The Demarcation Board must so recommend if the reason for the authorisation is no longer valid.
- (7) When an authorisation is revoked in terms of subsection (6) or lapses in terms of section 13, the MEC must, if necessary, regulate by notice in the Provincial Gazette the legal, practical and other consequences resulting from the revocation or lapsing of the authorisation, which may include—
- (a) the transfer of staff;
 - (b) the transfer of assets, liabilities, rights and obligations, and administrative and other records; and
 - (c) the continued application of any by-laws, and resolutions in the area of the municipalities concerned and the extent of such application.

Transitional arrangement in respect of section 20 of Act 117 of 1998

19. For the first election of municipal councils after the enactment of this Act, the date contemplated in section 20(1)(a) of the Structures Act, as amended by section 2 of this Act, must be regarded as 31 March 2000.

Short title

20. This Act is called the Local Government: Municipal Structures Amendment Act, 2000.
